Dr. Felix Schröter

Associate
German Patent Attorney
European Patent Attorney
UPC Representative
M.Sc. Chemistry

Felix is a patent attorney at Maiwald. His work mainly concerns prosecution and enforcement of IP rights in the fields of chemistry and pharmaceuticals. This includes drafting and prosecuting patent applications in the areas of inorganic chemistry and colloidal chemistry. While working on his dissertation in the field of organometallic chemistry, Felix developed novel catalytic systems based on transition metals, and investigated their activity in cross-coupling and addition reactions. This work has resulted in a number of publications, reflecting his specialist knowledge in inorganic, organic and theoretical chemistry.
